

Colin Plante, E.I.T.

Title: Geotechnical Engineer

Expertise: Geotechnical Engineering

Professional History:

May 2020 to Present Summit Geoengineering Services
Lewiston, Maine
Geotechnical Engineer

February 2019 to December 2019 Research Assistant for Dr. Carlton Ho,
University of Massachusetts Amherst,
Amherst, MA

Education: B.S. Civil Engineering (2020), University of Massachusetts Amherst, Amherst, MA

Experience: As an entry-level engineer, Colin's responsibilities include: field work, which includes borings, cone penetration testing, and logging of soils, soil profiling, engineering design, and technical writing. Colin holds bachelors of science in civil engineering with focus in geotechnical study from University of Massachusetts, Amherst.

Certifications: Certification of Engineer in Training
40 hr HAZWOPER Certification
10 hr OSHA Construction Standards Training Certification

Professional Affiliations: Associated General Contractors (Umass Chapter President)
American Society for Civil Engineers (Umass Chapter Class Rep.)