

Stephen B. Marcotte, C.G., P.G., L.S.E.

Title: Senior Geologist / Site Evaluator

Expertise: Hydrogeology, Environment Site Assessment, Septic System Design, Wastewater Discharge, Environmental Compliance

Professional History:

April 2018 to present	Summit Geoengineering Services, Lewiston, Maine Senior Geologist / Site Evaluator
2015 to April 2018	Sevee & Maher Engineers, Inc., Cumberland, Maine Senior Geologist / Project Manager
2011 to 2015	Summit Environmental Consultants, Inc., Lewiston, Maine CES, Inc (by acquisition), Lewiston, Maine Project Geologist / Project Manager
2004 to 2011	Sweet Associates, Falmouth, Maine Geologist / Site Evaluator

Education: M.S. Geology (2004), University of Vermont, Burlington, VT
B.S. Geology (2001), University of Maine, Orono, ME

Experience: Steve holds bachelors and masters degrees in geology with a concentration in field mapping and geochemistry. He has focused his consulting career on providing practical solution for contaminated site investigations, hydrogeology and wastewater disposal investigations. As Senior Geologist at Summit, Mr. Marcotte's responsibilities include; business development and lead for environmental, hydrogeology, groundwater monitoring, septic system and wastewater discharge projects for SGS.

Certifications: Certified/Professional Geologist – Maine, New Hampshire
Licensed Site Evaluator – Maine
Very Small Water System Operator – Maine
40 hr HAZWOPER Certification

Professional Affiliations: Maine Association of Site Evaluators (former Director)
Geological Society of Maine
National Groundwater Association